

FACULTY POSITION OPENING

Daoist Traditions is seeking a faculty member for a twelve-month, full-time position in Asheville, North Carolina. Responsibilities include:

- Teaching both Didactic and Clinical courses
- Teaching in the Acupuncture and the Herbal programs
- Serve and Lead Faculty Committees
- Provide Student Advisement
- Conduct Admission Interviews
- Work collaboratively with Administrators and Faculty

Qualifications:

- Master's Degree or Equivalent in Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine
- Ability to Obtain Licensure in North Carolina
- 10 Years of Clinical Experience
- Prior Teaching Experience

Daoist Traditions offers a competitive salary with a 401K with graduated vesting. We also offer a Health and Wellbeing contribution to be used towards medical, dental or your wellness choices. This position includes one month of paid vacation.

Please send a letter of introduction with a copy of your resume.

Daoist Traditions is committed to an academically rigorous educational program, which challenges students to transform emotionally, spiritually, and intellectually. Because of this, we seek faculty and staff who are committed to the same personal cultivation and growth. Caring for others as a profession also requires a commitment to one's self; and self-cultivation is a vital part of maintaining a balanced life.

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED at: Administrativedirector@daoisttraditions.edu