Dear International CNT Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the Clean Needle Technique (CNT) course, administered by the Council of Colleges of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (CCAOM). Successful completion of the CNT course is one of the requirements for certification by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) in the United States.

Please note that this administration of the CCAOM CNT course is intended only for persons who have (1) graduated from an acupuncture and/or Oriental medicine school and/or (2) those who are applying for NCCAOM certification. To be eligible to take the CCAOM CNT course, you must meet one of the criteria listed on Page 2 of the International CCAOM CNT Application Form (below).

The following are policies and procedures related to the CNT course, application instructions, and the International CCAOM CNT Application Form. Please read all information and instructions before completing the application form.

The CNT course contains several components:

1. an orientation
2. instruction on the theories, concepts and application of clean needle technique as described in the Clean Needle Technique Manual
3. a demonstration of the practical application of CNT
4. a written exam
5. a training session where each applicant can practice and perfect the utilization and employment of CNT
6. a practical exam

Each CNT course begins at 8:00 am and ends at approximately 5:00 pm. We cannot promise an exact time that the course will end, only an approximation. If you have any questions after reading the enclosed material, please email the CCAOM office at ccaomcnt@comcast.net.

Applications can be sent by mail, by fax, or by email (if sent by email, please scan the application and send as an attachment so that signatures are visible). Send to:

If you fax your application to us, please email to confirm receipt, as faxes are not always successfully transmitted. (For your protection: If you send your application as an email attachment, we recommend that you do NOT fill in the credit card information on the application form, but instead fax this information to us. Alternatively, you can send the card information in three separate emails - one containing the card number, another containing the expiration date, and a third containing the security code.)

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Location
This course will be held at Dongguk University in Seoul, South Korea. The exact location of the course will be provided in the acceptance letter.

Date
The date of this course is October 28, 2017.

Language
This administration of the CNT course will be conducted in English. Applicants for this course may request a written exam in English, Chinese, or Korean, but certificates of completion will reflect the language of the written exam. Foreign applicants should be aware that, if you are planning on relocating to the U.S., the practice of acupuncture is regulated by state law, and some states may require that you complete the entire CNT course in English, including the written exam.

Cost
The cost of this administration of the CNT course will be $500 (in U.S. dollars) if your application is received on or before the application deadline. If you are mailing your application to us, payment can be made as a certified check or money order in US dollars, or by credit card. If you email or fax your application, payment must be made by credit card. Applications must be accompanied by payment in full; we cannot process any applications without payment.

Application Deadline/Late Applications
We encourage applicants to submit their CNT applications by August 28, 2017. However, CCAOM will accept applications received after this date with a $25.00 late application fee if there is space available for the course. Please note that late application fees are NOT refundable.

Clean Needle Technique Manual
The emailed acceptance materials for the course will include a link to the PDF file of the 7th Edition of the Clean Needle Technique Manual. There is no extra charge for this Manual, which is available on our website in English, Chinese, and Korean. You will need to study it carefully BEFORE the CNT course. Because the CNT exam questions are based on this edition of the CNT Manual, studying prior editions may result in failure of the written exam. All information, procedures, and protocols you need to know to enable you to pass the CNT course are contained within this Manual. We recommend that you bring the Manual with you to the CNT course, either in hard copy form or on a laptop or other electronic device, although this is not required. If you do not want to wait until receiving the acceptance materials to begin studying the Manual, you can access it from our website at any time. If you would prefer a hard copy of the Manual to a digital version, you can transfer the PDF file to a flash drive and have it printed at a print-to-go center.

Confirmation of Acceptance into the CNT Course
You will receive an acceptance letter by email approximately one month before the course date. If you do not receive the acceptance letter by email within one month prior to the course date, you must notify the CCAOM office (all communications with the CCAOM office must be in English). It is your responsibility to notify the CCAOM office if you do not receive the acceptance letter. Failure to receive an acceptance letter is not an acceptable excuse for not attending the CNT course for which an applicant is registered.

Travel Kit Requirement
You will be required to assemble and bring a travel kit with you to the course, the contents of which will be described in detail in the acceptance letter.

Cancellation Policy
If you would like to withdraw from the CNT course, please notify the CCAOM office by email. Applicants will be refunded $300.00 (USD) if the cancellation notice is received 15 days or more before the course date, $200.00 if it is received 8-14 days before the course date, and $100.00 if the cancellation notice is received 1-7 days before the course date. Applicants who fail to attend a CNT course for which they are registered will receive no refund. Please note that late application fees are NOT refundable.

Airline Tickets
If you need to fly to a course site, do not purchase an airline ticket before you have received the acceptance letter. (You will receive the acceptance letter approximately one month before the course date.) NOTE: If you fly to attend a CNT course, your travel kit should be placed inside checked baggage, not carry-on.

Required Minimum Number of Applicants
If we do not receive a minimum number of applications, the course(s) will be cancelled. This decision will be made 4-5 weeks prior to the course date and will be communicated to applicants by email. In the event of cancellation, applicants will be issued full refunds.
Taping
In the absence of written permission from the CCAOM national office, the taping or recording (either video or audio) of any portion of the CCAOM CNT course is strictly prohibited.

Space Limitations
There are space limitations for all CNT courses. Because applications are considered on a first-come first-serve basis, make sure you apply as soon as possible for the CNT course date of your choice.

Written Exam
The written exam consists of 50 multiple choice questions and will be given in English, Chinese, or Korean, according to the preference indicated by each applicant on their application form. PLEASE NOTE THAT APPLICANTS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO CHANGE THE LANGUAGE OF THEIR WRITTEN EXAM ON THE DAY OF THE COURSE. Certificates of completion will reflect the language of the written exam. Applicants will be given up to 90 minutes to complete this exam, which will be graded on-site. Those applicants who pass the written exam will be allowed to continue with the practical portion of the course. Those applicants who fail the written exam will not be allowed to continue with the CNT course that day and will need to re-apply and re-take the course at a future date.

Practical Exam
The practical exam will be given in English at this administration of the CNT course. Applicants who fail the practical exam will be allowed time to practice the techniques and will be given a second practical exam on the same day of the course. Applicants who fail to pass the second practical exam will be required to re-apply and re-take the entire course at another time. No refunds will be given to anyone who is required to re-take the course. All those who must re-take the course will be required to pay the full course fee again.

Certificates
If you pass the written and practical exams, you will receive your certificate at the end of the day. Please note that it is important to state your name on the CNT application form exactly as it will be given to the NCCAOM, which usually means it has to match your name as it appears on your photo ID. If the CCAOM needs to re-issue you a CNT certificate at a later time with a different version of your name, you will be charged a $10 fee.

NCCAOM CNT Policy
Applicants for NCCAOM certification must have completed an approved CNT course within 6 years of his/her application date for NCCAOM certification.
