

Seeking Part Time Acupuncturist

New York, NY - Seeking motivated and professional acupuncturist to join busy boutique practice in Uptown Manhattan. Wonderful opportunity to collaborate with experienced practitioners and grow within an established practice. Mentorship in acupuncture, Eastern and western herbal Medicine, nutrition and supplements provided. This integrative health clinic partners with physicians in conventional approaches to create a better paradigm for healthcare. Heavy fertility, pregnancy and women's health focus although all conditions are treated. Great opportunity to learn and specialize. Successful candidates will be professional, presentable and have great customer service. Excellent bedside manner, team mindset and professionalism are a must.

Qualifications

- Candidate will have excellent interpersonal and multi-tasking skills and demonstrated self-directed work ethic to successfully function in a fast paced environment.
- Interest in women's health
- Graduate of an accredited acupuncture program is required
- Current acupuncture license from the State of New York is required.
- Knowledge of reproductive health is preferred.

Interested candidates send your resume and cover paragraph to christina@naturalife.com and include "attn dr burns" in the subject line of your email.