

CCAOM Committees

Committee	Chair / Co-chair(s)	Charge
Accreditation	Kris LaPoint (Midwest)	Review, evaluate, and make recommendations on accreditation issues.
Ad hoc Committee on California Legislative & Regulatory Affairs	Yun Kim (Emperor's)	Monitor California AOM-related legislative and regulatory issues.
Bylaws	John Yoo (VUIM)	Review, evaluate and recommend changes to the Council Bylaws.
Clean Needle Technique (CNT)	Valerie Hobbs (ACTCM at CIIS) & Kris LaPoint (Midwest)	Facilitate the Council's leadership role in acupuncture safety through publication, education and certification of a national standard for CNT.
Curriculum Development	Jeff Millison (VUIM)	Review, evaluate and make recommendations on competencies, knowledge base, student learning outcomes, assessment methods, and best practices used in curriculum development at member colleges.
Executive	CCAOM President	Per Bylaws, manage the Council's affairs and property; exercise the powers usually associated with the board of directors of a nonprofit organization.
Faculty Development	Yun Kim (Emperor's)	Recommend faculty development, training and programs to enhance the expertise and skills of faculty at member colleges.
Finance	CCAOM Treasurer	Monitor, evaluate and make recommendations regarding the Council's budget, finances, and investments.
Herb	Vim Osathanugrah (Wongu) & Kerri Westhauser (MUIH)	Review, evaluate and make recommendations concerning the delivery of herbal medicine curricula at member colleges; monitor regulatory and other developments that affect access to and use of Chinese herbs by AOM practitioners.
Legislative	Catherine Niemiec (PIHMA) & Cissy Majebe (Daoist)	Monitor legislative and regulatory developments relevant to the AOM profession and make recommendations for action by the Executive Committee and/or member colleges.
Libraries of AOM	Kathleen Smith (SCUHS)	Make recommendations concerning the growth, development and expertise of libraries at AOM colleges.
Marketing	Megan Haungs (NYCTCM)	Make recommendations about appropriate and effective means to educate AOM stakeholders on the Council's mission and functions and promote the success of AOM graduates.
Membership	Misti Oxford-Pickeral (AFEA)	Review membership requirements and provide membership information to non-member colleges and orientation to new member colleges.
Nominating	Megan Haungs (NYCTCM)	Per Bylaws, solicit and accept nominations for Council officers and submit the slate of nominees for election by member colleges at the annual meeting.
Research	Jennifer Brett (UBAI)	Inform member colleges of developments in the area of relevant research and encourage research and research literacy.
School Clinic	Thomas Kouo (ESATM) Jenny Yu (SCUHS)	Assist member colleges in creating excellent school clinics and strategies for meeting regulatory compliance and addressing profession-related issues affecting clinic operations and education.
Student Affairs	Megan Haungs (NYCTCM) & Cheryl Miller (NUNM)	Provide a forum to discuss issues including but not limited to academic performance, student professionalism, compliance, regulatory concerns (e.g., ADA, Title IV, Title IX, Cleary Act, etc.), campus safety, security, student career & professional development resources; address the impact of these issues on member colleges; provide shared resources (e.g. peer presentations).